

PETITION OF NEGRO VOTERS NOT WORRYING MAYOR

City Chairman Finds Nothing in Paper Affecting Recent Primary. Democratic party officials and others affected by a petition filed in the office of the clerk of the City Circuit Court by James Taylor and other colored voters, protesting against alleged irregularities in the recent City primary, claim that there is no cause for worry.

Mayor Ansible said yesterday that he could not see that he was affected in any way. Chairman John M. Forcell, of the City Democratic Committee, examined the petition and proposed to find nothing that could affect the primary.

Statement was made that the primary was held according to rules laid down by the State law, which gives the right to political parties to hold primaries for the nomination of officers and gives the officials of such parties the right to say who shall participate in such primary elections.

It is pointed out that the party officials have the right to exclude details from the primary.
